

2011 Rules

1. Any team wishing to compete in the 2011 Kick-Off Cook-Off must turn in a St. Louis County Temporary Food Establishment Application. Despite what it says on the application, there is NO cost for the permit.
 - a. Permits can be found on the County website:
 - i. http://www.stlouisco.com/doh/FoodCenter/Resource_Ctr/Temporary_Food_Establishment_Application_Revised_07_09.pdf
 - b. It says there is a 10 calendar day deadline. I have been told verbally they will work with us on the date. So we have a soft entry deadline of Tuesday, April 12.
 - c. I do not know if the health department will come by and inspect or not.
2. We are expecting a full sellout again this year. The following teams will be held a spot until Saturday, February 12, 2011:
 - a. Those teams that have entered either 2 or 3 Kick-Off Cook-Off (former backyard entries count).
 - b. The next spots will be handed out to those teams who were entered in the 2010 Kick-Off Cook-Off.
 - c. Any other entries that have been received by 2/5/11.
 - d. The remaining spots will be assigned on a first come basis.
 - e. We reserve the right to reject any entry form.
 - f. Going forward, we will only give priority to teams that have entered the 2011 Kick-Off Cook-Off.
3. We will disqualify teams handing out samples to the public.
4. Team Meeting is tentatively scheduled for 4:30 Friday afternoon.
